Even in the best of times, nonprofit leaders must make tough decisions, and many struggle with how to do so in a way that will protect their organization's best interests.

For most of us, 2009 is not "the best of times," and what 2010 will bring is anyone's guess. How can the decisions we make today, difficult though they might be, help us in our efforts to preserve the mission and vision of our organizations, and even prepare us to emerge stronger?

Please join TCC Group for a workshop led by Shelly Kessler, Vice President and Director, and Anne Sherman, Associate Director. We will provide specific focus on the role of the Board during challenging times. We will offer strategies for sustainability, as well as allow participants to share their lessons learned and facilitate a peer discussion.

This workshop is directed at teams of senior executives and board members of nonprofit organizations. We strongly encourage participants to come in teams of 2 so you can engage in "real time" discussions as a leadership team.

This event is free, but reservation is required. To RSVP, please email Andrew Ahlquist at aahlquist@tccgrp.com.
